Opportunity to Learn About the Carmelite Sisters of Hague

For the past few years the Diocese of Bismarck, has been blessed with the presence of a Carmelite monastery in Hague, ND. The Discalced Carmelite sisters of the monastery are devoted to living a cloistered contemplative life. To those who do not have familiarity with the contemplative sisters' cloistered life, its hidden nature can be mysterious, confusing, or seem disconnected from the life of the rest of the Church. Leland Vetter, president of the sisters' board of advisors, will be giving a talk at St. John's on Saturday Feb. 10 at 1 PM. Vetter will give information on Carmelite Spirituality, the sisters' life, and their mission in the diocese. Come take advantage of this opportunity to learn about sister's important role in the Church. Coffee and snacks will be provided.
